

Henry Ripplinger Biography

Henry Ripplinger is one of Canada's foremost prairie artists. His work is on display in private and corporate collections across Canada, most notably in Saskatchewan, his home province, and can be seen in the critically acclaimed book If You're Not from the Prairie, which he illustrated.

Henry came to writing late in life and has been led by his passion to complete a five-part, inspirational Christian romance series: "The Angelic Letters." Henry's lifelong experience and eclectic career as a high school teacher, guidance counsellor, professional artist and businessman extraordinaire have prepared him to craft this epic love story and indirectly realize his aspiration to write a self-development book.

Henry resides with his wife in a panoramic valley setting in Lumsden, Saskatchewan, Canada.

For more information on "The Angelic Letters" series, visit his website at: www.henryriplinger.com